Subject: Tuition and Emergency Assistance Funds Available For Spring 2022 Term!

Dear NTC Students!

Students who are enrolled in the spring 2022 term can apply for emergency financial assistance through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III). If you are facing financial challenges due to the ongoing impact of COVID, you may be eligible for financial assistance.

Application deadline is Friday, February 4, 2022, at noon.

Students have the opportunity to apply for HEERF funds in two separate categories, with a maximum amount available in each:

Tuition Assistance:

- Used for outstanding tuition balances.
- Eligible students may apply to have the funds directly applied to their NTC account balance by completing the HEERF Tuition Assistance link (found in your myNTC account under “Billing & Financial Aid > Apply for Coronavirus Aid”).
- Funds are limited and the requested amount may be pro-rated based on available remaining dollars.
- If a student has already made a payment covered by the request, they will be refunded.

Emergency Relief:

- Used for expenses related to cost of attendance, including food, housing, course materials, technology, health care (including mental health care), and childcare.
- Eligible students may apply by completing the HEERF Emergency Relief link (found in your myNTC account under “Billing & Financial Aid > Apply for Coronavirus Aid”).
- Funds are extremely limited at this point and not all requests will be approved.

Please note that students who have already submitted an application(s) for spring 2022 may have reached their maximum available in one or both categories, making them ineligible to apply again. Funds do not need to be repaid and students will be notified via their NTC student email of their request status.

If you have any questions, please email crsaa@ntc.edu. Additional details regarding the HEERF funds can be found by visiting <https://www.ntc.edu/covid19/heerf-ii-iii>

Best wishes as you begin your spring semester at NTC!
