

EMAIL MESSAGE-sent to students with pending HEERF emergency assistance applications
2.11.2022

You recently received an email regarding the opportunity to apply for tuition assistance and emergency financial assistance through the Higher Education Relief Fund III (HEERF III). We regretfully wish to inform that your request for emergency assistance is unable to be funded due to a limited pool of available federal emergency assistance relief dollars. If you submitted a request for tuition assistance, that approval will be communicated separately.

We recognize that you may be disappointed, but please know that NTC staff are here to assist you during these difficult times. We have attached a reference guide containing NTC and community resources that may be able to support your needs (several of these are also listed below). If you have an emergency situation and would like to discuss that situation to determine additional resources that may be helpful to you, we encourage you to schedule an appointment with your advisor by calling 715.803.1797.

Please know we remain committed to serving the needs of our students and providing resources that ensure your ongoing success as a student. We are here for you and wish you well in the remainder of your semester.
