

EMAIL to students from HEERF Team-Tuition Assistance Funds Available 3.9.2022

Dear NTC Students,

Students who are enrolled in the Spring 2022 semester can apply for tuition assistance through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III). Tuition assistance can be applied to tuition, books, course materials, and other charges on your student account for the current term.

Funds are limited and eligibility is based on the number of credits you are enrolled in for Spring 2022. For outstanding tuition balances, eligible students may apply to have the funds directly applied to their NTC account balance by completing the HEERF Tuition Assistance link (found in your myNTC account under “Billing & Financial Aid > Apply for Coronavirus Aid”).

NTC staff are here to assist you during this challenging time with other support options. You may connect with your advisor to discuss access to additional resources that may include:

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE / RESOURCES

If you have an emergency situation and would like to discuss that situation to determine additional resources that may be helpful to you, we encourage you to connect with your advisor through your Starfish Success Network in Canvas or by calling 715.803.1797.
